Excerpt: . . . but one, and the brethren of that Lodge attended the convention of an adjoining district, owing to its contiguous location. The Grand Lecturers manner of teaching and his pleasing personality won the approbation of all in attendance, and at the close of the convention a resolution commending his method of instruction and earnest application was unanimously adopted. It has been my privilege and pleasure to visit all the Lodges in the district, and I find them to be prosperous and harmonious. Upon each of these occasions I was received most cordially and with fraternal courtesy. With but one exception a degree was worked upon these occasions, and I have but words of commendation for the participants in the work for so closely following the standard work as exemplified by the Grand Lecturer. For many years all the Lodges in the district have enjoyed a full measure of success and prosperity except two----Living Stone, No. 255, and Zion, No. 514. Living Stone, No. 255, had a membership in 1892 of sixty-six, and in 1902, fifty-seven. Since the last annual report it has raised seven and initiated three, and has a much more promising future than for many years. Zion, No. 514, lost its home nearly a year ago by fire--all its records and furnishings being destroyed. It now has a new Lodge room, more handsomely furnished than any other Lodge room in the rural portion of the district, and in a short time this Lodge will...
