Not illustrated. 1918 Excerpt: . the inclusion in the Revised Prayer-book of the prayers in the booklet. Prayers for Private Devotion, your committee feels that there will be very little demand for the small booklet. It, therefore, earnestly recommends that of the 3000 copies still in stock, one copy be placed in every room of such Jewish institutions as Jewish Hospitals and Old Folks Homes, and, with the co-operation of the Jewish Welfare Board, in Base Hospitals, cantonments, camps, and Naval Stations. In regard to recommendation VII of the report, bearing upon the revision of the Union Haggada, your committee recommends that the Conference proceed deliberately in this matter, and that, therefore, a committee be appointed to consider the advisability of revision of this book, and if, in their judgment, revision be necessary, they shall determine the principles upon which this revision shall be made, and submit their plans to the Conference at its next convention. Moreover this committee recommends that an edition of 3000 copies of the Union Haggada be printed. This number should at the present rate of sale satisfy the demands for this book for at least two years. Your committee notes with gratification that the first edition of the Revised Union Hymnal is almost exhausted. This edition consisted of practically 22,000 copies. It is pleasing to realize that this book has already been used in this quantity, and that the plans of the former Publications Committee, that this first edition should pay completely for the cost...
