Reviews

This pdf is indeed gripping and interesting. It is definitely simplistic but shocks within the 50 percent of your book. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Excerpt: . . . THE SOCIAL ELEMENT IN THE WORK OF THE YOUNG MENS CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATIONS For the past two years the secretaries and the physical directors of the Brooklyn Association have been engaged, under the leadership of Dr. Luther Gulick, in the study of the social instincts of young men, with special reference to the work of the Young Mens Christian Associations. This paper is an attempt to present the most salient result of those studies. No effort has been made to summarize the papers that have been presented, but rather to extract from them as a whole a central and fundamental principle which has been considered, and the most striking applications of it to Association work. This paper must be regarded as in a sense the composite work of the secretaries and physical directors of the Brooklyn Association under expert leadership, and not as the original work of the writer. Nor would the group or its leader claim originality for all the conclusions at which they have arrived. Many of them are, doubtless, propositions which have had currency among Association men, and therefore to many the studies of the group may not mark more than a restatement and correlation of certain facts and principles which are now comparatively familiar in the Association world. We will not undertake in this paper to give specific credit to Dr. Gulick for all the suggestions for which he is responsible, but we will at the outset acknowledge our general indebtedness...
