Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Catastrophe and Social Change, Vol. 94: Based Upon a Sociological Study of the Halifax Disaster The following pages embody the result of an observational study of the social phenomena attendant upon one of the greatest catastrophies in history - the Halifax Disaster. The idea of the work was suggested while carrying out a civic community study of the disaster city under the direction of Professor F. H. Giddings of Columbia University. The account deals first with the shock and disintegration as the writer observed it. Individual and group reactions are next examined in the light of sociological theory. The chapters on Social Organization are an effort to picture that process as it actually occurred. The writer has also tried faithfully to record any important contribution which Social Economy was able to make in the direction of systematic rehabilitation. Special reference is made to private initiative and governmental control in emergency relief. This monograph is in no sense, however, a relief survey. Its chief value to the literature of relief will lie in its bearing upon...
