

Conversations: Connecting Generations of Women (Paperback)

By Karen Gutowsky, Patricia Mesch

Trafford Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Conversations brings women ages 20-80 through a journey of self-discovery, community and personal empowerment. The book's genesis is the result of an ongoing discussion between the co-authors over the course of twenty years. We started Conversations with four simple questions to women throughout the United States. The forms of communication included written, voice, and e-mail. What we found important was not the communication vehicles, but the questions, answers and advice resulting from these conversations. Conversations is a collection of thirty women's stories who participated in the dialogue. They talked about who they are, what they did right, what they would do over, and asked a question or two. So began the conversation. . . you asked. . . you answered. We contacted the women ten years later and have included those who responded in this collection. Women want other women's input into the daily happenings of their life and they want to know how other women tackled fears, joys and health issues. Conversations addresses the concerns of modern American Women of all ages,...

Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).
