Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Not on the Bills: A Farce in One Act Story Of The Play Lora Livingston, leading lady of a theatrical company, is engaged to Frederick Ainsleigh, the leading man. She is afraid he flirts when out of her sight. To test him she disguises herself as Mandy Slocum, a stage struck country girl, and completely fools Banks, her manager, and Jimsy, the office boy. I aim to act. I m going to call myself Evelina Everglade. Banks doesn t want to see her act. Poor Juliet s been murdered so many times. Lora gets Banks to help her try it on her lover. Ainsleigh recognizes her, but conceals it, and pretends to be smitten with the little country girl. May I call this evening? He pretends to write her an address where she may find a room, then attempts to embrace her. Lora throws off her disguise and denounces him. So I have found you out. Ainsleigh makes her read the note he gave to Evelina. You are a clever actress, Lora dear, but I...
