Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Unhealthiness of Towns, Its Causes and Remedies: Being a Lecture Delivered on the 10th of December, 1845, in the Mechanics Institute at Plymouth Before I enter upon the subject which I have undertaken to treat of this evening, I cannot help expressing in the first place how much I felt flattered by the invitation I received from the Committee to deliver a lecture here, and how honoured I feel by the attendance so many of you have given. We are met together to consider a subject in which we all are deeply interested, because the healthy the tranquillity, the morality, nay, the Christianity of the people of this country are nearly concerned in the sanitary condition of these towns; and yet one upon which persons of all classes, all parties, and all creeds may, both in consultation and action, harmoniously combine, and cordially cooperate, because it affords no scope for political or theological differences. I only hope that, though I cannot treat it as it deserves (and I assure you I am painfully sensible of my...
